

Thankfulness

What should I already know?

- People thank you for a new baby.
- People are thankful at special times such as birthdays and Christmas.
- Christians thank God for creation.

What I will know by the end of the term

- Lots of people think it is important to say thank you.
- Christians say thank you to God when they celebrate the Harvest festival.
- Different Christians celebrate this festival differently.
- Jewish people believe in one God who has chosen them to be His special people.
- They believe he has made contracts – covenants with them and they have to follow his commandments (Mitzvot).
- The festival of Sukkot is a festival of thanksgiving for Jewish people.

Key vocabulary I need to know

Christians	Followers of Christianity.
Covenant	An agreement made between God and people.
Etrog	A yellow citrus fruit eaten by Jewish people during the holiday of Sukkot.
Harvest Festival	A celebration to thank God for the harvest.
Jews	Followers of Judaism.
Mitzvah	A good deed.
Mitzvot	More than one good deed.
Sukkah	A hut where Jews lived during their years of living in the desert.
Sukkot	A Jewish festival that celebrates God looking after the Jews when they lived in the desert.
The ten commandments	A set of rules that Christians and Jews follow in their lives.